

CHAINSAW DUPONT

Delta Crush Guitar

Born: Friday, August 13, 1956, Macomb, MS
Resides: Evanston, IL

Touring guitarist for Jr. Wells, 1990s

Chainsaw Dupont & the Blues Warriors have built a strong following by swimming against the tide, performing original material rather than the slew of preferred "classic blues" covers that are favored on the touristy Chicago blues circuit. Updating the classic blues with modern sounds, they still retain the soulful underpinnings that have always made the blues work. Dupont has made his mark and attracted some of the best young musicians in Chicago to his live band, performing "alt-blues" that sounds at once both classic and vibrant.

"...a fine blues songwriter – a tradition that becomes scarcer in this genre every year since Willie Dixon passed."

– LIVING BLUES (US)

"...this modern day troubadour demonstrates an originality both in his songwriting and in the variety of approaches he takes to convey these ideas..."

– JUKE BLUES (UK)

Delta Crush Guitar

"...his musical persona is as palpable on disc as that of Taj Mahal or Keb' Mo' – he's masterful, nuanced, and out to kill with blues power..."

– BLUES REVUE (US)

"...plays passionate, thoughtfully structured solos, and his lyrics intelligently tweak blues stereotypes (the strutting badass, the country naif in the big city)." – CHICAGO READER
